The extreme south part of the county was visited by a tremendously heavy rain Monday night, accompanied by hail that battered crops. The storm swept into Perkins county cutting a wide swath, and thence into the south part of Keith county, practically destroying all crops. It is estimated that from twenty to thirty thousand acres of crops were destroyed.

NORTH PLATTE GETS 1917 DRUGGISTS' STATE CONVENTION

North Platte's human dynamo, Secretary Fisher of the Chamber of Commerce aided and abetted by George Frater, Charley Tighe, Francis Dunn and J. H. Stone, have secured for North Platte the convention of Nebraska State Druggists for the year 1917. The convention met at Hastings this week, with an attendance of nearly 200, and with the avowed purpose of securing the convention for next year, the above boosters attended. That they heralded North Platte's advantages ably and well is evidenced by the fact that when it came to selecting a convention city for next year, North Platte came very near being the unanimous choice. The vote was North Platte eighty, Beatrice twenty-one, Lincoln seven and Omaha one.

North Platte is now pretty generally recognized as one of the real live-wire towns in the west, and its hospitality to the stranger within its gates is becoming proverbial. Let's keep up the voltage—the human energy that keeps things moving. Everybody who visits North Platte says we have a live town, a good town; why not everybody in North Platte think and say so, too.

SECRETARY NYE SAYS TRIP VERY SUCCESSFUL

Walter C. Nye, secretary of the Keith County Community Club writes President Thoelecke, of the Chamber of Commerce as follows:

"In behalf of the farmers, the business men and the Keith County Community Club, I wish to extend to your organization and your citizens our thanks and our sincere appreciation for the courteous and hospitable treatment we received as guests to your city Tuesday.

"It was the general feeling expressed by every single individual in the party that the trip to your city was one of the best they ever had experienced. I heard one farmer, a man who seldom indulges in anything of the kind, say that he had never had such a good trip or so much fun since he had been in the west.

"One of our leading farmers came to my office this morning and formulated a plan whereby we could entertain your organization.

"When I hear this sentiment expressed by the boys, who a short time ago thought that a club of this kind had nothing in mind but to 'skin' the farmer, and when I see how the boys are getting closer together along any and all lines, I feel that this great field of club work is coming into its own very rapidly.

"Aside from the fun of the trip, the knowledge, as was illustrated to them, and the various work being done at the North Platte state farm—our farm—was beneficial to all who attended. Permit me to say that North Platte should feel very proud of this state institution; North Platte should feel very much indebted to your Chamber of Commerce, for they have through their generosity and co-operation brought about a brotherly feeling such as heretofore has never existed between the towns of this county and North Platte."
